Regarding renewal permit applications, permits will be renewed and reissued so long as the applicant continues to meet all of the requirements of the Act and regulations set forth in Title 272, Nebraska Administrative Code, Chapter 21. Renewed permits are valid for a five year period from the date of expiration of the initial permit.

If the applicant does not meet the qualifications, including submitting complete application documentation, the applicant will be notified by mail by the Nebraska State Patrol indicating the reason for denying issuance of the permit.

5. Renewal of Permits

Current permit holders may apply to renew a permit to carry a concealed handgun no earlier than four (4) months prior to expiration of the permit and no later than thirty business days after the date of expiration of the permit at any Nebraska State Patrol Troop Headquarters. After the thirty business days have passed without applying for a renewal, the permit holder will be required to apply for another initial permit and meet all of the requirements for an initial permit.

An application for renewal must be completed by the permit holder affirming that the permit holder still meets all current requirements for obtaining a permit. The application must be accompanied with the appropriate fee, copy of current driver's license and current concealed handgun permit. If the applicant still meets the requirements for a permit, the permit will be renewed and reissued for a five year period from the date of expiration of the initial permit.

A renewal request can also be completed online for an additional service fee at: <https://www.nebraska.gov/apps-nsp-chp/>.

At least four months before expiration of the permit, the Nebraska State Patrol will send a notice of expiration to the permit holder by United States mail or electronically.

6. Change of Name or Address

Permit holders who change name or address are required to notify the Nebraska State Patrol Concealed Handgun Permit Program within thirty (30) days of the change in name or address using the application form prescribed by the Nebraska State Patrol. The application form should be accompanied with a copy of the applicant's updated Nebraska driver's license and current concealed handgun permit.

If the applicant still meets the requirements for a permit, a replacement permit shall be issued. The replacement permit shall have the same expiration date as the initial or renewed permit.

A change of name or address request can also be completed online at: <https://www.nebraska.gov/apps-nsp-chp/>.

A permit holder moving to another state shall return the permit to the Nebraska State Patrol Concealed Handgun Permit Program for cancellation. The permit is not valid if the permit holder is no longer a resident of Nebraska.

7. Lost/Stolen or Damaged Permit Replacement

A permit holder whose permit is lost, stolen, or damaged shall notify the Nebraska State Patrol using the prescribed application form within ten (10) days of determining that the permit is lost, stolen, or damaged. The replacement request shall include a statement about the facts and circumstances surrounding the lost, stolen, or damaged permit in the designated place on the application form. When notified of a lost, stolen, or damaged permit, the Nebraska State Patrol shall cancel the permit. The permit holder shall not carry a concealed weapon until the Nebraska State Patrol issues a replacement.

If the applicant still meets the requirements for a permit, a replacement permit shall be issued. The replacement permit shall have the same expiration date as the initial or renewed permit.

A replacement request can also be completed online at: <https://www.nebraska.gov/apps-nsp-chp/>.

If a peace officer seizes a permit as evidence of a violation for criminal case or a revocation proceeding, the officer shall notify the Nebraska State Patrol immediately so that the permit will not be replaced as lost or stolen upon application by the permit holder. A form for this purpose will be available on the Nebraska State Patrol website at: <http://www.statepatrol.nebraska.gov/>.

8. Rights of Persons Denied Permits

Persons denied a permit by the Patrol may file a request for an administrative due process hearing to review the denial. A request will be considered timely filed if placed in the United States mail with sufficient postage, properly addressed to the Nebraska State Patrol, Concealed Handgun Permit Program, P.O. Box 94907, Lincoln, NE 68509 within fourteen (14) working days of the mailing of the denial letter to the applicant. No administrative hearing will be afforded applicants who fail to timely file an appeal of the Patrol's denial of a permit.

If a hearing is requested, it shall be held pursuant to the Nebraska Administrative Procedures Act and the Nebraska State Patrol Rules and Regulations pertaining to administrative hearings (Title 272 - Chapter 1). The petitioner (applicant) must specify through pleadings or at a prehearing conference the basis for the appeal.

The scope of the hearing shall include a review of the accuracy of the information used in making the decision to deny a permit. The State Patrol has the burden of going forward with evidence to show why the permit application was denied. A decision shall be made by the Superintendent within fifteen (15) working days of the hearing.

Appeals from the Superintendent's decision shall be filed in the District Court of either the county in which the applicant resides or the county in which the applicant applied for a permit in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Nebraska Administrative Procedures Act.

No hearing will be afforded those failing to successfully complete an approved training program. Any disagreement with the training program should be addressed with the director of the training program. If there is reason to believe that the training program is not following the training guidelines or is misapplying the law, such allegations should be brought to the attention of the Superintendent of the Nebraska State Patrol.

Any person initially denied a permit because of failure to submit proper documentation may contact the Criminal Identification Division of the Nebraska State Patrol to determine whether the deficiencies can be successfully eliminated prior to requesting an administrative hearing.

Any person denied a permit based upon criminal history information which they believe to be erroneous should contact the Criminal Identification Division of the Nebraska State Patrol to challenge the accuracy of the criminal history information as authorized by Nebraska Revised Statutes § 29-3525 if it is a Nebraska record and the Federal Bureau of Investigation if the criminal history information is from another state.

In the event the Petitioner fails to appear for a hearing, a default disposition shall be entered into the record upholding the decision of the Nebraska State Patrol in conformance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

9. Reapplication After Denial or Revocation

A new application for a permit to carry a concealed handgun will automatically be denied if received from an individual who has previously been denied a permit or whose permit has been revoked, unless the disqualification has been remedied. The individual has the burden to document that the disqualification has been removed.

10. Obligations of a Permit Holder

At all times while carrying a concealed handgun, a permit holder shall carry the following documentation and display it to any peace officer or emergency services personnel upon request:

- 1) concealed handgun permit; and
- 2) Nebraska driver's license, Nebraska issued state identification card, or military identification card

Violation of this provision is a Class III misdemeanor for the first offense and a Class I misdemeanor for a second or subsequent offense.

A permit holder carrying a concealed handgun who is officially contacted by any peace officer or emergency services personnel must immediately inform the peace officer or emergency services personnel of the concealed handgun unless physically unable to do so.

A peace officer or emergency services personnel making contact with the permit holder may determine that securing the handgun is necessary for the safety of any person present. If requested, the permit holder must immediately surrender or secure the handgun for safekeeping as ordered by the peace officer or emergency services personnel until a determination has been made that there is no concern for safety and that the permit holder will not be detained for law violations or medical treatment. If the permit holder is transported for treatment by emergency services personnel, the handgun is to be turned over to a peace officer as soon as it is feasible to do so. The peace officer will provide the permit holder with a receipt for the handgun which will include make, model, caliber, and serial number.

A permit holder shall not carry a concealed handgun while consuming alcohol or while there is any previously consumed alcohol or controlled substance, as defined in Nebraska Revised Statutes § 28-401, in his or her blood, urine, or breath unless the controlled substance was lawfully obtained and taken in therapeutically prescribed amounts.

A permit holder must continue to meet all of the requirements for issuance of a permit during the time he or she holds a permit. A permit holder no longer meeting the requirements for a permit is required to return the permit to the Nebraska State Patrol for cancellation. A permit holder who fails to return the permit is subject to the formal revocation process described in Section 011 of these regulations. If a permit holder dies or becomes disabled, relatives or other responsible parties are requested to return the permit to the Nebraska State Patrol for cancellation. Permits cannot be transferred to another person. No fees will be refunded for permits which are cancelled or revoked.

A permit holder who has a handgun or other firearm lost or stolen should immediately notify his or her county sheriff or local police department.

11. Reporting Injuries and Damage Caused by Firearm of Permit Holder

Any injury to a person or damage to property resulting from the discharge of a handgun carried by a permit holder must be reported by the permit holder to the Nebraska State Patrol within ten (10) days of the incident. The form for making such a report will be available on the Nebraska State Patrol website at: <http://www.statepatrol.nebraska.gov/>. The report will not be required for minor property damage of minimal significance – see the definitions of property damage found in Section 002.10 of Title 272, Nebraska Administrative Code, Chapter 21. A report is required for malicious damage inflicted with a handgun.

12. Penalties

An applicant for a concealed handgun permit who provides false information or offers false evidence of his or her identity is guilty of a Class IV felony and is subject to a revocation of the permit in a formal civil prosecution.

A permit holder who fails to carry the required documents when carrying a handgun or who fails to inform of the presence of a handgun when officially contacted by a peace officer or by emergency services personnel is guilty of a Class III misdemeanor for the first offense and a Class I misdemeanor for any second or subsequent offense and is subject to a revocation of the permit in a formal civil prosecution.
